How do we transfer and store information about you?

As Amco Veba Marine is a global organization with entities around the world, your personal information may be transferred to and stored outside the country where you are located. This includes countries outside the European Economic Area (EEA) and countries that do not have laws that provide specific protection for personal information.

Where we collect your personal information within the EEA, transfer outside the EEA will be only:

- if the recipient is in a country (or a specified sector within a country – for example, an organization under the EU-U.S. Privacy Shield) that the European Commission recognizes as ensuring an adequate level of protection for personal data
- under standard data protection clauses adopted by the European Commission or other safeguards meeting the requirements of the European General Data Protection Regulation for transfers of personal data outside the EEA.

We may make use of cloud applications to store your data. Your personal data may be processed on our behalf by another service provider and could be stored in different locations around the world. Where external service providers are used, we have contracts in place with the vendors that require them to keep your information secure and not to use it other than in accordance with our specific instructions.

Processing locations and transfers to third party service providers

We may share your personal data between the Amco Veba Marine entities on a confidential basis where required for the marketing, administrative and other business purposes. A list of the countries in which Amco Veba Marine entities are located can be found on our website.

Your information may also be transferred to service providers (third party service providers) to process it on Amco Veba Marine's behalf. When we transfer personal data, we do so for the purposes for which the information has been submitted, for the purposes listed above under Use of Personal Information, for the administration and maintenance of the Platforms and associated systems, and/or other internal or administrative purposes. We also may transfer personal data to third party service providers of identity management, website hosting and management, data analysis, data backup, security and storage services.

Other disclosures

We may also disclose personal information to third parties under the following circumstances:

- when explicitly requested by you
- when required to deliver publications or reference materials as requested by you

We will retain your personal information on our systems only for as long as we need it, given the purposes for which it was collected, or as required to do so by law, or to establish, bring or defend legal claims. We keep contact information (such as mailing list information) until a user unsubscribes or requests that we delete that information.

Marketing

Where we are legally required to obtain your explicit consent to provide you with marketing materials, we will only provide you with such marketing materials if you have provided consent for us to do so. Otherwise, we rely on our legitimate interest to develop our relationship with existing customers and grow our business as a legal basis for contacting you. Again, we have conducted a “balance assessment” under the GDPR (which takes into account your interests and fundamental rights, and your reasonable expectations) to confirm we are permitted to do this.

Your rights in relation to your information

- to ask us to provide you with a copy of that information in structured, commonly used and machine readable form (where our processing is based on your consent or a need in connection with your contract).

If you would like to exercise these rights or understand if these rights apply to you, please contact us by sending an email to privacy@amcoveba.it.

Unsubscribe

If you do not wish to receive emails or marketing communications from us, you can at any time contact us at privacy@amcoveba.it to request that such communications cease.

Third party links

The Platforms may link to third-party websites, applications and social media platforms not controlled by Amco Veba Marine and which do not operate under Amco Veba Marine's privacy practices. When you are directed to third-party platforms, Amco Veba Marine's privacy practices no longer apply. We encourage you to review each third-party's privacy policy before disclosing any personally identifiable information.

Right to complain

You have the right to lodge a complaint with the GDPR Process Owner or your local data protection regulator if you are concerned about the way we have processed your personal information. Please visit that regulator's website for further details. You may contact our GDPR Process Owner to assist you in identifying that regulator. Please note that the regulator may recommend that steps are taken to resolve the matter with the Amco Veba Marine before involving the regulator itself.

Changes to this Privacy Statement
